

FALL PROGRAMING & EXPERIENCES IN WHISTLER

The upcoming fall season is jam-packed with special offers, deals, promotions and programming to help drive visitation to the resort and support local businesses.

All of the fall initiatives outlined below are being supported by Tourism Whistler marketing & sales efforts, including a new Support Local Campaign, which has been designed to encourage local residents to “be a tourist in our own town” by shopping and dining locally this fall.

FALL DINING SPECIALS

Dates: September to late November

Eat, drink and embrace autumn! Many of Whistler’s restaurants, pubs and eateries have special offers available through the quieter fall shoulder season. This initiative is supported by a $25 Dining Voucher program when guests book a minimum 2-night stay through whistler.com.

whistler.com/fall

WHISTLER VILLAGE CRAFT BEER MONTH

Dates: October 1 to 31

Whistler Village Craft Beer Month features 31 days of craft-beer programming across the resort with over 20 different craft breweries and 30+ community partners participating. Experiences range from flying through the trees with Zip n’ Sip to getting pampered in a beer-infused body wrap with a Sip & Stay retreat.

whistler.com/craft-beer-month

WHISTLER WINE WALKS

Dates: Every Friday in October from 5PM to 7PM

Explore Whistler’s vibrant art gallery scene while sampling hors d’oeuvres and BC wines every Friday night in October. Choose between two newly curated tours: Whistler Village Wine Walk and Upper Village Wine Walk. Safety protocols are in place and tickets will be limited to ensure proper physical distancing.

whistler.com/arts

TURKEY SIDEWALK SALES & FALL SHOPPING DEALS

Dates: October 1 to 18

With winter right around the corner, locals and visitors alike are dreaming of those perfect powder turns and on the hunt for new gear. While the Whistler Blackcomb Turkey Sale is not happening this year, many stores throughout Whistler will have great deals and promotions to help get you kitted out for the winter season ahead.

whistler.com/thanksgiving#sales

WHISTLER CORNUCOPIA

Dates: Weekends in November

Whistler Cornucopia has been reimagined this year, with new small, intimate experiences across the resort. COVID-19 protocols have been strictly adhered to when developing the schedule to ensure a safe and welcoming experience for all. Programming has been spread out over four weekends in November to help attract the regional market.

whistler.com/cornucopia

FALL ACTIVITIES

Dates: Any time

While most of Whistler's activities are available, we are playing more simply this fall, emphasizing exploration, wellness, a connection to nature, and staying in our comfort zones. View our Doors Open Directory to see what's open and how businesses are operating to help keep you healthy and safe.

whistler.com/activities/fall

WHISTLER CULTURAL PASS

Dates: September 1 to November 30

The Whistler Cultural Pass provides access to the Audain Art Museum and the Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre. Throughout the fall, the Whistler Cultural Pass is being given as a complimentary value-add when guests book a minimum 2-night stay through whistler.com.

whistler.com/arts

WHISTLER WRITERS FESTIVAL

Dates: October 15 to 18

The Whistler Writers Festival is going virtual in 2020! The annual fall event celebrating the written word brings authors and attendees together for virtual real-time conversations, live-streaming masterclass workshops, virtual pitching sessions and reimagined editions of the festival's marquee events, Literary Cabaret, Saturday Night Gala and Sunday Brunch.

whistler.com/writersfestival

DOORS OPEN DIRECTORY

This directory provides up-to-date information about what businesses are open in Whistler and details on how they are upholding the highest of standards in health and safety for all.

whistler.com/doors-open

If you have questions, please contact us at membercommunications@tourismwhistler.com.